

Profile: Ezaki Michio

Ezaki Michio was born in Tokyo Prefecture in 1962. He graduated from Kyushu University with a degree in Literature. In 1997, after serving as editor in chief at the monthly Sokoku to seinen (Fatherland and youth), he joined Nippon Kaigi as a research staff member. His current specialization is policy research. Mr. Ezaki wrote A Delayed Action Bomb Planted by Comintern and Roosevelt, Tendensha, Tokyo, 2012. He is the coauthor of Japan and Korea: Kindred Spirits for 2000 Years, The Alleged 'Nanking Massacre': Japan's Rebuttal to China's Forged Claims, and The World Judges the Tokyo Trials, all issued by Meiseisha. One of his papers, "Anti-Japanese Networks Drag Japan into a Quagmire" is available online at http://www.sdh-fact.com/CL02_1/38_S4.pdf.